Winter Girls Only Beginner Clinic

(Girls 10 & Under)

Learn the game of hockey from professional instructors.

Intended for beginner players ages 4 - 10.

Starting September 9, 2017

Saturdays – 5:45-6:45 pm

Skating Skill Level: Players should know how to skate forward and be nearly able to stop.

Players are grouped by age and ability level.

Format:

5 minutes: Warm-ups
35 minutes: Skills & Drills
20 minutes: Scrimmage Game(s)
(using the USA Hockey cross-ice format).

Goals:

- To develop a skating comfort zone for each player; preparing them to enter hockey play at the in-house level.
- To build basic hockey skills, including skating, shooting, stick-handling and passing skills, within a small group format.
- To teach proper skating techniques using a stick, supplemental to the “Learn to Skate Hockey” program offered by Union Sports Arena.
- To give girls an opportunity to have their own space at the rink and develop a passion for the game at their own pace.
- To have FUN!

This program will be coached primarily by Matt Anderson and Matt Gualtieri assisted by a staff of professional instructors, high level High School Players and youth assistant coaches.

Equipment Needed: Helmet with full-face shield, gloves, stick, elbow pads, shin guards, shoulder pads, hockey pants, hockey socks and ice skates. Additional protective gear (mouth guards & neck guards) is optional, but recommended.
